KCEANS TAKE PART IN RS POSTCARD ZOOM MEETING HOSTED BY WOODRIDGE COLLEGE & PREPARATORY SCHOOL, SOUTH AFRICA

This meeting on the theme: 'Democracy Everywhere: Schools, Families, & Friendships' was for the children in age group 11-13 years. 7 Kceans took part in it on Oct 4.

TAKEAWAYS

The keynote speaker Mr. Quinton's inspirational journey serves as a powerful reminder of human resilience and determination, motivating us to work diligently in our own lives. Despite encountering racial discrimination, Mr. Quinton, a 57 year old South African born in 1966, exhibited unwavering strength. Following his impactful speech, we were divided into breakout rooms, where Chloe Middleton hosted our discussion. She led us through thought-provoking questions, including the criteria that define democracy. We engaged in three breakout sessions with brief two-minute breaks, maintaining lively and engaging discussions. She adeptly facilitated the sessions, encouraging us to share our perspectives and insights. The lessons learned today emphasize the universal applicability of democratic values and principles.

Today, I got a great opportunity of attending a round square zoom meeting on the topic "DEMOCRACY EVERYWHERE, SCHOOLS, FAMILIES AND FRIENDSHIP " I must say it was an exhilarating experience. I got a chance to interact with children from round the globe. It was quite informative. We enjoyed exchanging our views. Overall it was an awesome experience.

ARYAVEER PAL SINGH, 7B

I got an opportunity to attend the zoom meeting on Democracy in which various schools participated and expressed their views. It was quite a knowledgeable and informative session. It helped me understand what actually democracy means for students from different cultures and countries.

Ahaana Kohli Class, 6th F

My takeaway after attending the zoom postcard on the topic "Democracy Everywhere ": I got to understand different things about democracy. The keynote speaker was Sir Quinton. I also got to experience many fun baraza sessions. The discussion indeed added to my knowledge regarding the topic.

Harshit Kotwal, 7th B

Today's meeting was very informative and helpful. It was a great experience. I learnt that democracy is a principle that will always stay in our lives. It creates a respectful atmosphere around each other. Today was a really informative evening and I gained lot of knowledge not only relating to the topic but also relating to varied aspects of social set-up. Thanks to all the hosts and Round Square to give me such a great opportunity and make my evening unforgettable.

Pranshi Kohli, 7A

The virtual conference on the theme "Democracy Everywhere: Schools, Families and Friendship" aimed to explore how democracy is followed in different schools around the world in which various students participated and expressed their views. The keynote speaker was Sir Quinton who shared his experience and discussed the problems faced by him and made us realise that we are far privileged compared to other children across the globe. The Conference provided a unique opportunity to learn about diverse students, cultures, perspectives and democratic values like liberty, equality, dignity of individual, co-operation and sharing of responsibility.
